

Marsha Woody Academy

January 2022 Newsletter

Welcome back and I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and New Year. Now that we have put 2021 behind us, let the past be over and the new year begin with hope, dreams, and perseverance!

Below I have a few reminders:

- 1.) MWAD Classes Resume.... Tuesday, January 4th, 2022.
- 2.) Monday, January 17th, 2022.... MLK Holiday.....NO CLASSES THIS DAY! Classes resume Tuesday, Jan. 18
- 3.) Beaumont Civic Ballet Spring Performance.....BCB Presents “Wizard of Oz” on Feb. 13th, 2:00 PM....at the Julie Rogers Theatre. Mark your calendars and be sure to attend! Tickets go on sale soon
@www.beaumontcivicballet.net
- 4.) Recital.... I have ordered all Recital costumes for all classes. Starting sometime in January all teachers will begin their Recital Dances.
- 5.) MWAD January Birthdays.... Happiest of Birthdays to the flowing peeps! XOXO
Marlina Gomez 1/3, KC Slay 1/3, Frances Elmore 1/4, Evelyn Buckner 1/6, Macy Briggs 1/11, Anna White 1/13, Romy Catherine 1/18, Anne Collette Frasher 1/18, Nihira Bhatt 1/24, Veda Ravi 1/24, Faith Thomas 1/24, Inez Clark 1/26, Sienna Peterson 1/26, Caddi Gibbs 1/28
- 6.) MWAD Student of the Month.... Alexandra Neale is the student of the month. She was always helping backstage on her own setting up all the Nutcracker Cook props every day. She is kind, smart and a wonderful role model to her peers. Congratulations sweet Alex!

In closing, my staff and myself wish you a year with much health, happiness, prosperity, and many unexpected blessings from God. May his light guide your way throughout 2022!

Love,

Ms. Monique ♥

