Your Mind will always believe what you tell it. The Angel of darkness wants us to worry about what's next, so you don't enjoy what's now. In my experience, he has wanted me to doubt, live in fear and cause turmoil within my family. So, if you have been there try feeding your mind with values of truth, faith, and love. If you let go, and give it to God, you will have peace. My staff and I wish a safe and Blessed Thanksgiving to all our MWAD Families!

*Much love,
Ms. Monique*
